Have a Safe and Blessed Week!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Happy New Year!! With many challenges and trials, we have made it to other year by the grace of God. I am so glad that we can gather as a community once more to worship and glorify him. Wise men still seek him, the old Christmas card declares. Today we celebrate the feast day of the Epiphany of the Lord. The route of the Magi is a symbol of our path to Christ. Almost always we come from afar, across the desert of faith, surrounded by darkness. Some get disoriented, others get lost, but a few lift their eyes up to the sky and in the middle of the night discover the star, we must follow it with all hope and to persevere to the end. The Magi set on their way they asked, "Where is the King of the Jews that was just born? We have seen his star and we have come to adore him".

The magi sought the newborn King of the Jews to do him homage. We also seek the Lord. Why? Why do we seek him? We seek him because we want him to be our king. We want him to be the focus of our lives. We are not satisfied with just calling upon him when we need him in times of crisis and challenge.

We don't just call out to Jesus when a loved one is hurting, or has died, or when we have strife in our family, or when we need help at school or at work. We call out to him every day to be the center of our lives. As we start this new year may God's favor be upon our families that we may build a strong and vibrant community rooted in the Lord. I look forward to a happy and joyous year 2026. Like the magi we must go on a journey. Our lives must be a journey seeking the Presence of the Lord. We journey with the magi to those Bethlehem where we can find the Lord.

May your journey and may my journey be safe, beautiful and full of the love of God. May it be a journey of the wise. Happy New year

I remain your brother in Christ

Fr. Crispine Adongo

Sisters of St. Benedict Invite Catholic Women to Come & See Weekend. FERDINAND, IN -- The Sisters of St. Benedict in Ferdinand invite women who are discerning religious life to join them for a Come & See Weekend. Held from January 2 to January 4, 2026, the event will give single Catholic women between the ages of 18 and 40 the opportunity to connect with other women who are considering religious life, experience the Benedictine way of life, and get an inside look at what this community means to the Sisters. There will also be time for discussion, questions, and reflection. This weekend will provide community, connection, and an exciting chance to explore Benedictine life. To reserve a spot or learn more, those interested can contact Sister Jill Reuber at vocation@thedome.org or 812-367-1411

A special Thank You to our great catechists who coordinated and lead this beautiful event, our hospitality ladies, choir, parents who helped, everyone who brought in cookies and hot cocoa! Thank you all so much!

Sherry and our Youth did a beautiful job singing! Thank you!
