Gaze Upon the Cross

Let us spend some time looking at the cross and see how much he loves us. Jesus chose to suffer for our sins. (close your eyes and gaze on the cross)

Make three acts of love to him in thanksgiving right now.

Let's take a moment now and tell Jesus how much you love him. (pause)

Ask Jesus: Show me your love for me. (take the time to listen)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The theme of God's unending love for us, his people, runs through our readings today. Christ trusts His apostles to reveal and introduce "salvation" to all His people. He calls us in a personal way, awarding us redemption and conversion. Such a mission implies the social transformation of mankind, by changing our hearts to love beyond all telling. The modern priest must play both a father and a teacher role; I have tried to the best of my ability through the fidelity to my ministry. Not everyone can carry out such a demanding task; nor is it a responsibility that can be easily mastered. We are being called now, more than ever, the harvest is great.

I do encourage the vocation to the priesthood and religious life to the young people I see around here in our community. The workers must come from and within our families. The family is the seed bed for the vocations. I am very excited anytime I talk of my vocation. So many things happened in my life leading up to my priesthood with the help of my parents who were at the forefront of this calling. I pray for them every day for their eternal rest.

Christ is moved when seeing His people "abandoned and exhausted", like sheep that have no shepherd. It is in this situation that the Church finds itself today, the harvest is plentiful and the laborers are few. We need more priests to help us live holy lives. We are all gifts from God. I thank you for allowing me to be your Shepherd.

May you have a blessed week.

Fr. Crispine Adongo

Consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

The United States Catholic Conference of Bishops will be dedicating the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on Thursday, June 11, 2026. Go to the website for the Novena:

<https://www.usccb.org/consecration-united-states-sacred-heart-jesus>

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus:

You know the longings of our hearts, and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you.

From your pierced side, you have poured out the wellspring of life, for which we thirst.

Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you.

We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation.

May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed.

May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to your infinite love.

O Desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask you to bless these United States of America.

Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!
Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!
